Oak Barrel Cabinetry, owned and operated by Jim and Brian Anderson, is housed in an 8,000 square feet facility at 100 Byng Avenue in Chatham. Jim and Brian started this incorporated business in July 2014 and presently have six employees.

Oak Barrel Cabinetry designs, manufactures and installs fine custom cabinetry. Jim and Brian started this cabinet company for the love of it, each coming from different sectors of the cabinet-making industry with their own valuable knowledge. They are like-minded individuals who simply know they can do it better. They provide exceptional customer service and a quality product.

They have been awarded the 'Best Custom Cabinet Shop in Chatham-Kent' in both 2015 and 2016. This award reflects our local reputation as we have been supported by clients and connections in the building industry. They also received the 'Best Service Provider of Houzz' award in 2016. The Houzz award shows their standing in the professional community and was granted by the Houzz judges on reviewing their past projects. The rendered service comprised of a professional relationship united with excellent craftsmanship.

Oak Barrel Cabinetry sponsors Challenger Baseball through the Children's Treatment Centre.

Chatham Kent is home to all of their employees. They have found this community very loyal to using local businesses first. The company believes they have been very warmly welcomed by the community.
